5. Directors Reports:
   a. Treasurer Report: We currently have $16, 201.83 in our account.
   b. Banquet Director: The total cost of preparing the meals came out to $804 and some change. We served over 120 meals. Ran out of salad and bread but had leftovers of the main meal.
   c. Tournament Director: The hotdog tournament went well even though we moved it to September because of the heat. Even that day was still hot. With the PVE tournament, all went well and the new scoring procedure was well taken. Steve suggested doing the same scoring for our own breakfast and hotdog tournaments. With the new scoring, you don't get kicked out early as before.
   d. Scheduling & Standing Director: The winter schedule is completed and was handed out to the CAPO's. Will start inputting the scores next week to make sure everything is running smooth. Team Sideline has risen their prices from $499 per year to $599. They did this because they say they have added new items for us. Jim will see if this works for us.
   e. Al Sacco Director: The first week of indoor Al Sacco went very well. Sharon asked if Tuesday PM teams need to do a make-up game, who has priority on Thursdays.

We explained that the league team would have that priority but normally it would not happen that often.

f. Maintenance And Supply Director: The pergola has been completely stained, and most of the sheds have been painted. Just the trim and parts of the upper area need to be painted. Once the painting is done, then we will install the rain gutters. The courts have been thatched and covered for the winter. We are waiting for Ryan Olsen to get back with us about putting a roof over the covered areas. He is checking with the city to see is a permit or anything else is required. Alex Vasquez and Dale will be doing the work for the water lines for the courts.
g. League Director: Priscilla collected the $15 from Vincent for his membership fees. Priscilla also collected $75 from Al Sacco for the banquet as well as $150 from guests that attended the banquet. We raised $978 from the raffle and the total to be deposited is $1128.

6. Any old business to discuss: There was not any old business to discuss because we didn't have any minutes to read.

7. Any new business to discuss: For the April membership meeting, Directors were asked to list items for the members to vote on. Jim brought up what the procedures/agenda are for running the board meeting. Any new people or teams that want to play bocce need to go through Priscilla. Also, Priscilla brought up that Tom Mclaughlin's time will be up in April. She will talk to him about staying on as the Banquet Director. She also provided a finance report were and how our money gets spent and what would happen if we had to have the banquets catered. Marvin brought up that the laws have changed on how long we are required to keep our minutes. Nothing was voted on and this item will be brought up later.

8. With nothing else to discuss, a motion was presented to adjourn. It was seconded and approved. We adjourned at 3:36pm
